Nancy Healey attended on behalf of the St. John's Board of Trade and delivered a presentation to Committee of the Whole reminding the Committee that in the 2019 budget it requested:

- removal of development fees
- the creation of a Municipal Auditor General
- tax fairness for businesses

For the 2020 budget the organization is requesting:

- Removal of Development Fees – as they create barriers to doing business in our city.
- Bringing fairness to how commercial properties are taxed to foster a bigger business community
- Continue improving efficiencies

The delegation elaborated on the requests and concluded their presentation by asking:

- That the City of St. John's commit to the complete removal of development fees
- That the City commit to reviewing the heavy burden of taxation on business
- That the City prioritize finding efficiencies within Government

A question/answer period ensued. With respect to the matter of development fees, it was suggested that staff undertake a jurisdictional scan to ensure the City's development fees are either on par or below those charged in other cities.

The delegation was thanked for the presentation and advised that Council will take their requests/submissions under advisement.

Deputy Mayor O'Leary asked to be excused from the meeting.
