St. John's Built Heritage Experts Panel

The Built Heritage Experts Panel (BHEP) provides expertise, opinion and perspective about built heritage, its protection and designation in the City of St. John's. The BHEP makes recommendations to Council, via Committee of the Whole, on heritage matters including the development and implementation of heritage policies, by-laws, strategies and programs. The Panel provides advice to support City decision making, applying knowledge and expertise related to the preservation, conservation, redevelopment and adaptable reuse of the City's built heritage resources.

Public Members:

Public members are expected to provide advice to support City decision making; applying knowledge and experience related to the mandate of the Panel.

In cases where the agenda or discussions present a conflict of interest for a member, that member is required to declare such conflict, to abstain from discussion; and remove themselves from the meeting room until the agenda item has been dealt with.

All members are required to refrain from the use or transmission of any confidential or privileged information while serving with the BHEP.
